By 2030, we will be learning together how to create more healthy, thriving and equitable communities.